Rosemont Response 12.9.13.docx

Hi Clay,

I don't think I ever got an electronic copy of what you were working on after I sent this first draft to you. Then you added the case studies on Cucumber Gulch, etc. I do have a hard copy draft that we wrote on. Is there any chance you might have it? If need be, I can recreate your part from what I have in hard copy, but let me know if you've got it saved on the G drive or if you find it on your computer.

Thanks,

Erin

Hi Clay,

Happy Snow Day!

Here's a draft of part of the Rosemont response to Greg. I pulled from the PN and some of the materials Elizabeth sent us. Since Russ said to include "Reg cites since OGC will be on the response," there's a little bit at the end about analyzing secondary/indirect effects.

Let me know what you think – we can discuss tomorrow morning, or later today if you want. I'll be around but maybe not right at my computer the whole afternoon.

Thanks,
